

Innovations & Projects Manager

AJ Hackett Bungy NZ is synonymous with innovation, at the ground-breaking edge of adventure tourism & the world industry leader in gravity challenges

We have an exciting opportunity to join our Queenstown based team, working in our Projects & Innovations department, leading key site developments & capital works projects & playing a vital role in master planning projects, as we cater for tourism growth & additional activities. Working on multiple projects, you'll be trusted to take ownership of a wide range of innovations, oversee the development of specialised equipment for use in our range of gravity related activities & projects & provide input to the continually improving safety standards of operations & the industry.

As much as we like to have fun, safety is always our #1 priority & a respect for H&S practices is paramount. If this sounds like you, you'll need to be/have

- 10 years' experience working in a relevant environment
- An experienced Project Manager, that's good with technical details
- Experience in controls, mechanical & structures advantageous
- Interest in specialised infrastructure, innovation & project engineering
- Mature & reliable with an uncompromising safety conscious mind-set
- Understanding & interest in Amusement Device operations
- H&S & First Aid Certification, preferable
- Current, clean & full NZ Driver's Licence
- Computer-literate with good communication skills
- Dedicated, creative & calm under pressure
- Ability to manage contractors, suppliers & Crew, with good knowledge of compliance requirements
- Someone that doesn't think twice about fitting hard work & fun times into the same day

This is a long term, permanent position & applicants should be eligible to work in NZ, prepared to travel & flexible in their availability. We offer job security, a real sense of belonging & value &, as well as all our other perks, the chance to Bungy as much as you like, comes as standard!

We're all about accepting, including & developing & Crew that mirror & represent our eclectic customer base & are committed to fair hiring practices & equal opportunities. If you're keen to join to our diverse team, who have fun at work & take pride in what they do, please send your application to hmanager@bungy.co.nz, using reference; I JUST INNOV-ATE
